USING A WINDERMERE AGENT TO SELL YOUR HOME

Your home may be your single biggest investment and one of the largest financial transactions you'll ever make. So when you sell, you want to get the best price and the most favorable terms, in the shortest amount of time. There are many marketing options, legalities, and details that go into the sale. The role of your agent is to represent every aspect of the transaction, from the time you set the price to the final closing.

AS YOUR WINDERMERE AGENT

- I know the market and will help you set the right price.
- I also know what buyers are looking for and the financial incentives that will encourage them to buy.
- I am a member of the Multiple Listing Service (MLS), which enables me to provide detailed information about your home to the thousands of other agents assisting buyers.
- In addition to the MLS, I interact with other agents on a daily basis. We trade information about new properties and match eager buyers with the right homes.
- I have access to several advertising opportunities both in print and online—that will raise interest in your home.
- I will utilize the tools available to me on Windermere.com in order to attract the maximum number of buyers to your home.
- Windermere's global referral system provides me access to the large number of people who relocate each year, increasing the pool of qualified buyers for your home.
- I can quickly separate the qualified buyers from the rest of the pack. This saves you time, because your home is only being shown to serious buyers.

We'll walk through your property together and I'll show you ways to enhance the value so you get top dollar.

PRICING STRATEGY

I'll help you with a pricing strategy — not pricing too high so you scare buyers away, or too low so you leave money on the table.

- MAXIMUM EXPOSURE

 My marketing plan will give you maximum exposure so we attract more buyers and more contracts. The more buyers and contacts you have, the higher your property will sell.
- NEGOTIATE THE BEST CONTRACT

 I'll help you negotiate the best contract. Negotiation is an important skill in any market.
- TRANSACTION MANAGER

 I am your transaction manager. There are a lot of moving parts. My job is to handle those parts so your contract closes on time.

A commonly asked question is, "Is there a best time to put your home on the market?" The answer is "Yes." The best time to market your home is exactly when you are ready.

What is important is to have a good game plan and time for preparation. When you are ready, I will be there to assist you with information that will help you get the greatest return on your investment.

Let's talk about your personal goals and current market conditions to determine when the time is right for you.

I WILL

DETERMINE HOW MUCH YOUR HOME IS WORTH

PROVIDE INFORMATION ON MARKET CONDITIONS

PREPARE YOUR HOME FOR SHOWINGS AND FOR SELLING

The market value of your home is what buyers are willing to pay in today's market conditions. My job is to help you set the right price from the start, and to position your property so it stands out in the market.

DANGERS OF PRICING ABOVE MARKET VALUE:

- True target buyers may not see your property because it's listed out of their price range.
- Buyers in the higher price point may compare your home to other homes at that price and consider it a bad value.
- It may sit on the market longer and sell for less than asking price. MLS statistics show that the longer a home is on the market, the lower the sales price.

WE CAN CONTROL:

-) Price
- Terms of Sale
- Condition of Property

WE CANNOT CONTROL:

- Location
- Competition
- Market Conditions

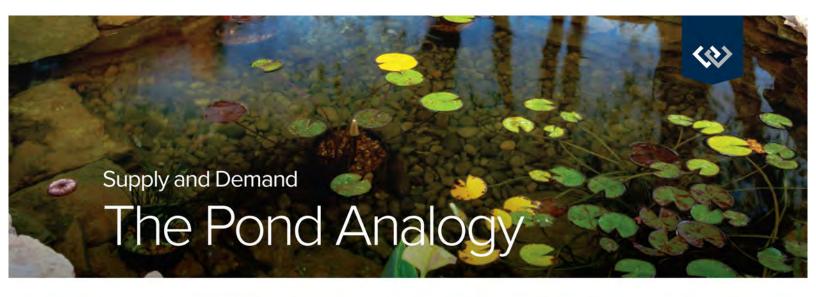

HERE'S HOW I WILL PRICE AND POSITION YOUR PROPERTY FOR THE HIGHEST RETURN:

- Analyze current market conditions and sales prices of comparable properties.
-) Discuss your goals and needs.
- Advise you about ways to make your property more attractive to buyers.
- Create a comprehensive marketing plan targeting the most likely buyers.
- Market your property to other agents, and get their feedback on its price and presentation.
- Keep you up-to-date on sales activity and market conditions.

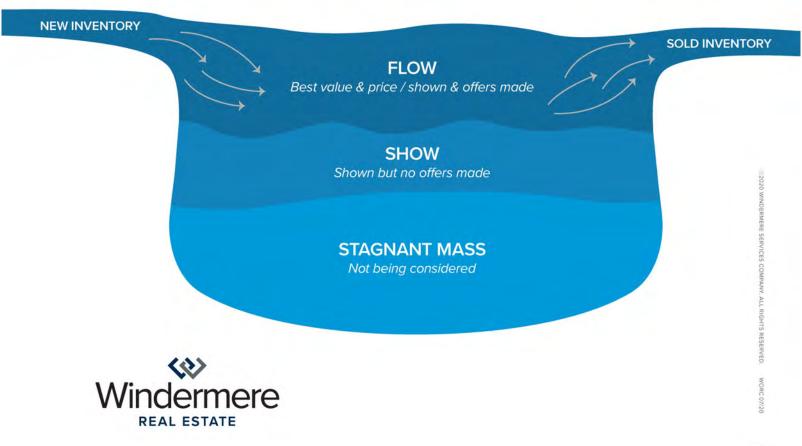

TERMERE SERVICES COMPANY, ALL RIGHTS RESERVED WORLD SO

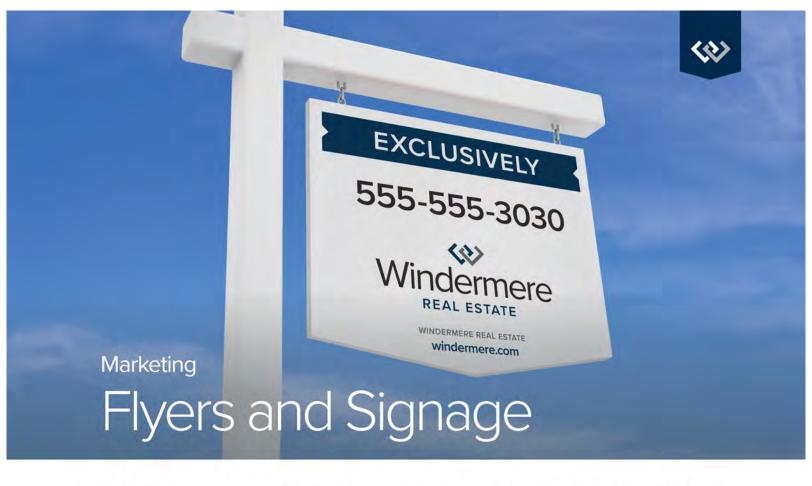

The real estate market can be compared to a pond. A pond has an inlet where the water comes in, and an oulet where the water runs out, and the water that is trapped and left behind. At the top of the pond, the water is moving along but as you go deeper the water slows and the the bottom is a stagnant mass.

Understanding Fair Market Value

MARKET DATE

Selling your property means the careful orchestration of advertising, marketing and public relations. My goal is to reach precisely the right target audience through key local and national contacts.

One way to achieve this goal is to pique interest with the full-color marketing materials I use to showcase your home. Whether I am presenting your information in a postcard mailing to the neighborhood or in an informative flyer, each piece will exude quality and professionalism.

Another way is to display a Windermere yard sign, which for over four decades has become synonymous with quality listings. 41% percent of buyers say yard signs are among the information sources they use during their home search.*

What better way to tell the story of your home?

^{*}National Association of REALTORS® 2020 Profile of Home Buyers and Sellers

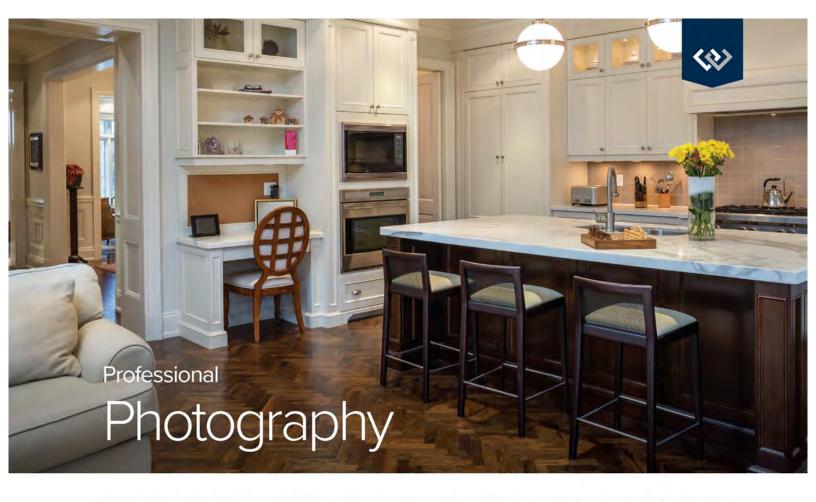

The old adage says, "A picture is worth a thousand words." There is a reason that some adages become old ... because they are so true.

Statistically we know that 97 percent of buyers use the Internet during their home search, and 89 percent of them cite photos as a "very useful" aspect of their online search*. If they don't like what they see, many potential buyers won't bother to see your home in person.

In order to make the best first impression, we display only professional photography that will appeal to as many buyers as possible.

Professional photographers have the lighting, equipment, and know-how to showcase your home's most flattering aspects.

This helps your home stand out from the competition, increasing buyer interest and potentially your final sales price.

* National Association of REALTORS® 2020 Profile of Home Buyers and Sellers

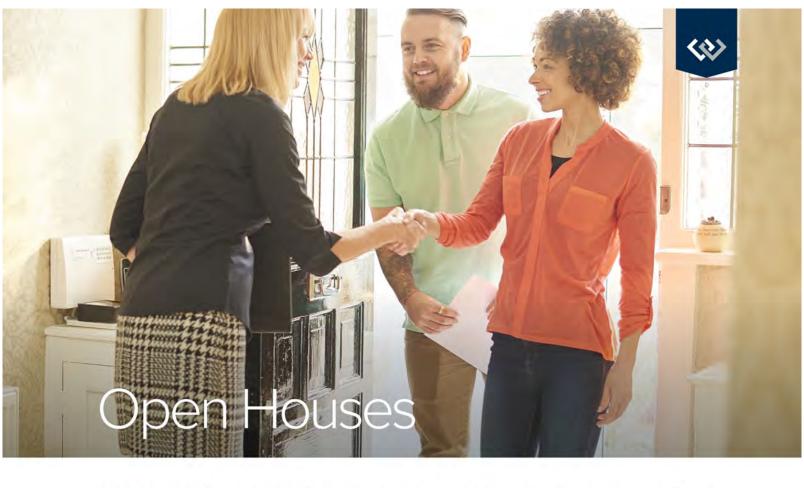

SHOWING YOUR HOME

Once your home is ready to show, as your Windermere agent, I will begin marketing it to potential buyers and other sales associates. If possible, leave the home when buyers are present so they feel comfortable asking their agent candid questions. Other helpful tips include:

- Remove pets. Take them with you or keep them penned in the yard or garage.
-) Open shades and curtains to let in light.
- I Turn on enough lights so the home is well-lit.
- Remove clutter from tables and bookshelves. Neatness makes rooms seem larger.
- Put away items in the yard such as garden tools, bicycles and toys.
- Turn on gas fireplaces to create a cozy atmosphere.
- Grind up part of a lemon in the disposal to add a fresh smell to the kitchen.
- Keep radios and TVs off, or on low volume.
- Keep money and other valuables, as well as prescription drugs, locked up.

One powerful way to create traffic and exposure for your home is by holding open houses. Fifty-three percent of buyers describe open houses as an important information source when looking for a home.*

The more people that see your home, the faster it will likely sell, and open houses help achieve that goal. They also allow me to answer any questions about the home or neighborhood while I'm face-to-face with potential buyers. Neighbors also love to attend open houses, which can lead to increased word of mouth and greater exposure.

Furthermore, open houses allow me to hear feedback directly from buyers and agents, which can be valuable in gauging interest and addressing concerns for future showings. All in all, open houses are an important tool in getting your home sold quickly and at the best price.

PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT

Once you've found a buyer for your home, I will work with you through the purchase and sale agreement. This is the contract in which you and the buyer outline the details of your property transfer. The purchase and sale agreement usually consists of the following:

- Earnest money receipt
-) Financing addendum
- Inspection addendum
- Conditions/disclosure addendum
- Contingency addendum, when appropriate
- Addendum outlining special conditions
- Lead-based paint notification, when appropriate

In selected areas, the following forms will also be part of your agreement:

Agency disclosure form

Once a buyer and seller have agreed to the details of a home sale, there's one final piece—the closing.

"Closing" is when you and the buyer sign all the paperwork and pay your share of the settlement fees, and the documents are recorded. Settlement obligations vary widely due to specific contract language, local laws and customs. My job is to manage those complex details to make it as easy as possible for you.

HOME INSPECTIONS

Once a buyer has decided to make an offer on your home, it will usually be contingent upon a professional inspection of the entire property—including improvements. The home inspector looks beyond the cosmetics to make sure that the home's general systems operate properly. The inspector will also look for large repairs that are needed and report on the condition of the home.

The standard home inspector's report will review the conditions of the home's heating and cooling systems; interior plumbing and electrical systems; the roof, attic and visible insulation; walls, ceilings, floors, windows and doors; foundation, basement and visible structure. The inspector will also look for cracks in cement walls, water stains that indicate leakage, and any indication of wood rot.

A home inspection also points out the positive aspects of a home, as well as the maintenance that will be necessary to keep it in good shape.

As the seller, you can also elect to hire an inspector to evaluate your home prior to putting it on the market. Many times an inspector can point out major or minor issues with your home that you may be unaware of and that may affect its value.

As your Windermere agent, I'm familiar with homeinspection services and can provide you with a list of names from which to choose. Another good way to find a home inspector is to ask a friend, or perhaps a business acquaintance, who has had a home inspection and can recommend a home inspector they were satisfied with.

Remember, no home is perfect. If major problems are found, I will help you negotiate through the process.

CALCULATING NET PROCEEDS

Your net proceeds, simply put, equal the sale price of your home minus any disbursements you make during the closing process. As your Windermere agent, I can help you determine the following costs:

Existing home loans	$
Other liens	+ $
Standard title insurance ¹	+ $
State excise tax	+ $
Loan discount	+ $
Escrow	+ $
Brokerage/service fees	+ $
Proration of interest	+ $
Recording	+ $
Inspections	+ $
Miscellaneous	+ $
TOTAL ESTIMATED DISBURSEMENTS	= $
Sale price of home	$
Est. disbursements	- $
ESTIMATED NET PROCEEDS ²	= $

Many title companies will offer a discount to sellers who have a copy of the title report received when purchasing or refinancing a property. Let me know if you have a copy at the time of the listing, and I will request a discount.

² This figure is an estimate based on our experience and reflects current rates and charges. Actual proceeds will be calculated by the escrow officer and will vary according to the specifics of the final sales transaction.

SETTLEMENT AND CLOSING

During the negotiation stage of the transaction, a mutually agreed-upon date for closing is determined. "Closing" is when you and the buyer sign all the paperwork and pay your share of the settlement fees, and the documents are recorded. Settlement obligations vary widely due to specific contract language, local laws and customs. Prior to closing, the closing agent (usually an escrow or title company or attorney) will complete a detailed settlement statement for both buyer and seller. As your Windermere agent, I can help you understand which of the following typical settlement fees apply to you.

THE SELLER RECEIVES:

- Utility deposits held by gas, electric, cable, telephone and other companies
- Prorated portion of pre-paid property taxes
- Prorated mortgage interest from payments made during the current month
- Fuel rebate for oil or propane remaining in storage tank
- Net proceeds after seller's share of expenses is paid

THE SELLER PAYS:

- Brokerage commission (the sum or percentage of the sale price previously agreed upon by the seller and real estate agent)
- One-half of escrow or legal fees paid to the attorney or escrow company for preparing the closing (In California, the party paying escrow fees varies from county to county)
- Document preparation fees, if applicable
- Recording and notary fees, if applicable
- Title search and title insurance (paid by either the seller or the buyer)
- Local transfer taxes, if applicable
-) State taxes, if any
- Repairs or inspections, if any, seller has agreed to pay for

MOVING TIPS

The process of moving is long and complex. Being organized, knowing what needs to be done, and tackling tasks efficiently can make your move significantly less stressful. Here's a checklist to keep you on task and help make your move successful.

SIX TO EIGHT WEEKS BEFORE:

- Use up things that may be difficult to move, such as frozen food.
- Get estimates from professional movers or from truck rental companies if you are moving yourself.
- Once you've selected a mover, discuss insurance, packing, loading and delivery, and the claims procedure.
- Sort through your possessions. Decide what you want to keep, what you want to sell and what you wish to donate to charity.
- Record serial numbers on electronic equipment, take photos (or video) of all your belongings and create an inventory list.
- Change your utilities, including phone, power and water, from your old address to your new address.
- Obtain a change of address packet from the post office and send to creditors, magazine subscription offices and catalog vendors.
- Discuss tax-deductible moving expenses with your accountant and begin keeping accurate records.

TWO TO FOUR WEEKS BEFORE:

- If you're moving to a new community, contact the Chamber of Commerce and school district and request information about services.
- Make reservations with airlines, hotels and car rental agencies, if needed.
- If you are moving yourself, use your inventory list to determine how many boxes you will need.
- Begin packing nonessential items.
- Arrange for storage, if needed.
- If you have items you don't want to pack and move, hold a yard sale.
- Get car license, registration and insurance in order.
- Transfer your bank accounts to new branch locations. Cancel any direct deposit or automatic payments from your accounts if changing banks.
- Make special arrangements to move pets, and consult your veterinarian about ways to make travel comfortable for them.
- Have your car checked and serviced for the trip.
- Collect items from safe-deposit box if changing banks.

TWO TO THREE DAYS PRIOR:

- Defrost your refrigerator and freezer.
- Have movers pack your belongings.
- Label each box with the contents and the room where you want it to be delivered.
- Arrange to have payment ready for the moving company.
- Set aside legal documents and valuables that you do not want packed.
- Pack clothing and toiletries, along with extra clothes in case the moving company is delayed.
- Give your travel itinerary to a close friend or relative so they can reach you as needed.

Pack a "first day" box with items you will need right away.

MOVING DAY: OLD HOME

- Pick up the truck as early as possible if you are moving yourself.
- Make a list of every item and box loaded on the truck.
-) Let the mover know how to reach you.
- Double-check closets, cupboards, attic, basement and garage for any left-behind items.

MOVING DAY: NEW HOME

- Be on hand at the new home to answer questions and give instructions to the mover.
-) Check off boxes and items as they come off the truck.
- Install new locks.
- Confirm that the utilities have been turned on and are ready for use.
- Unpack your "first day" box (see list for suggested contents).
- Unpack children's toys and find a safe place for them to play.
-) Examine your goods for damage.

MOVING ESSENTIALS:

-) furniture pads
- handtruck or dolly
-) packing tape
- bubble wrap
- newspapers or packing paper
-) scissors
- utility knife
-) labels
- felt-tip markers
- cornstarch packing "peanuts"
-) plenty of boxes

FIRST DAY BOX:

-) scissors
- utility knife
- local phone book
-) coffee cups
-) teakettle
- instant coffee or tea, soft drinks
-) pencil and paper
-) soap
-) bath towels
- trash bags
-) shelf liner
-) paper plates
-) snacks
-) toilet paper
- children's toys and books

All of us at Windermere Real Estate are committed to the principles of Fair Housing practices for all. Fair Housing is a matter of treating all people equally while adhering to federal, state, and local laws.

FAIR HOUSING ISSUES

Many buyers and sellers ask questions about the people who live in a neighborhood. Such questions are outside the scope of our professional practice. Some of them raise Fair Housing issues, and all of them seek subjective judgments rather than objective information.

THE LAW

Federal law prohibits discrimination in a real estate transaction based on race, color, religion, familial status, sex, handicap, and/or national origin, and state laws may prohibit discrimination on other bases, such as sexual orientation, veteran/military status, ancestry, and others.

Buyers: Ask your agent about including a "Neighborhood Review" contingency in your purchase forms to give yourself time to explore the neighborhood before making a final decision.

Sellers: If you receive a bona fide offer on a property, you cannot refuse to sell to or negotiate with the prospective buyer based on the aforementioned prohibited criteria. You may not falsely represent that the home is no longer for sale, nor can you advertise the home with an indication of preference or limitation on what type of people may purchase it.

Agents are prohibited from "steering" prospective buyers to specific neighborhoods based on the aforementioned criteria. A victim of discrimination may pursue a civil lawsuit or an administrative claim and seek a temporary restraining order, permanent injunction, actual damages, punitive damages, and attorney's fees.

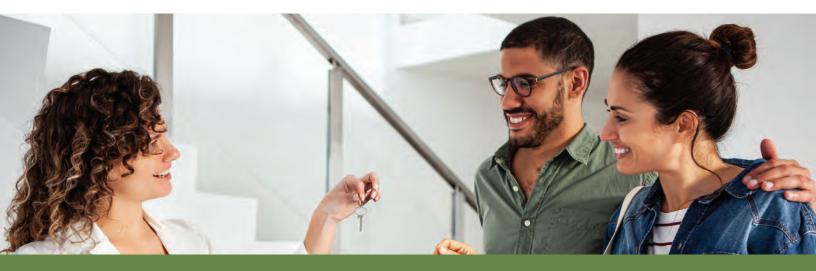

FURTHER RESOURCES

For more information, explore your local libraries' resources on census figures in your neighborhood(s) of interest. Local police precinct stations and school districts can also provide statistical information to aid your research. Otherwise, much information is available on the Internet to help you determine which neighborhood best suits your needs.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR HOMEBUYERS

Revisions to the Real Estate Agency Law

Effective January 1, 2024, the statute in Washington that governs real estate brokerage relationships (RCW 18.86) – otherwise known as the "Agency Law" – will be significantly revised. The revisions modernize the 25-year-old law, provide additional transparency and consumer protections, and acknowledge the importance of buyer representation.

Key Revisions

For years, real estate brokerage firms were only required to enter into written agreements with sellers, not buyers. Beginning on January 1, 2024, the Agency Law will require firms to enter into a written "brokerage services agreement" with any party the firm represents, both sellers and buyers. This change is to ensure that buyers (in addition to sellers) clearly understand the terms of the firm's representation and compensation.

The services agreement with buyers must include:

- The term of the agreement (with a default term of 60 days and an option for a longer term);
- The name of the broker appointed to be the buyer's agent;
- Whether the agency relationship is exclusive or non-exclusive;
- Whether the buyer consents to the individual broker representing both the buyer and the seller in the same transaction (referred to as "limited dual agency");
- Whether the buyer consents to the broker's designated broker/ managing broker's limited dual agency;
- The amount the firm will be compensated and who will pay the compensation; and
- Any other agreements between the parties.

Additional Information

There are other changes to the law that provide additional consumer protections related to the duties that brokers owe to all parties in a transaction.

Revised Pamphlet

The pamphlet entitled "Real Estate Brokerage in Washington" provides an overview of the revised Agency Law.

Revised Agency Law

Substitute Senate Bill 5191 sets forth the revised Agency Law in its entirety.

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE IN WASHINGTON

Introduction

This pamphlet provides general information about real estate brokerage and summarizes the laws related to real estate brokerage relationships. It describes a real estate broker's duties to the seller/landlord and buyer/tenant. Detailed and complete information about real estate brokerage relationships is available in chapter 18.86 RCW.

If you have any questions about the information in this pamphlet, contact your broker or the designated broker of your broker's firm.

Licensing and Supervision of Brokers

To provide real estate brokerage services in Washington, a broker must be licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW and licensed with a real estate firm, which also must be licensed. Each real estate firm has a designated broker who is responsible for supervising the brokers licensed with the firm. Some firms may have branch offices that are supervised by a branch manager and some firms may delegate certain supervisory duties to one or more managing brokers.

The Washington State Department of Licensing is responsible for enforcing all laws and rules relating to the conduct of real estate firms and brokers.

Agency Relationship

In an agency relationship, a broker is referred to as an "agent" and the seller/landlord and buyer/tenant is referred to as the "principal." For simplicity, in this pamphlet, seller includes landlord, and buyer includes tenant.

For Sellers

A real estate firm and broker must enter into a written services agreement with a seller to establish an agency relationship. The firm will then appoint one or more brokers to be agents of the seller. The firm's designated broker and any managing broker responsible for the supervision of those brokers are also agents of the seller.

For Buyers

A real estate firm and broker(s) who perform real estate brokerage services for a buyer establish an agency relationship by performing those services. The firm's designated broker and any managing broker responsible for the supervision of that broker are also agents of the buyer. A written services agreement between the buyer and the firm must be entered into before, or as soon as reasonably practical after, a broker begins rendering real estate brokerage services to the buyer.

For both Buyer and Seller - as a Limited Dual Agent

A limited dual agent provides limited representation to both the buyer and the seller in a transaction. Limited dual agency requires the consent of each principal in a written services agreement and may occur in two situations: (1) When the buyer and the seller are represented by the same broker, in which case the broker's designated broker and any managing broker responsible for the supervision of that broker are also limited dual agents; and (2) when the buyer and the seller are represented by different brokers in the same firm, in which case each broker solely represents the principal the broker was appointed to represent, but the broker's designated broker and any managing broker responsible for the supervision of those brokers are limited dual agents.

Duration of Agency Relationship

Once established, an agency relationship continues until the earliest of the following:

- 1. Completion of performance by the broker;
- 2. Expiration of the term agreed upon by the parties;
- 3. Termination of the relationship by mutual agreement of the parties; or
- 4. Termination of the relationship by notice from either party to the other. However, such a termination does not affect the contractual rights of either party.

Written Services Agreement

A written services agreement between the firm and principal must contain the following:

- 1. The term (duration) of the agreement;
- 2. Name of the broker(s) appointed to act as an agent for the principal;
- 3. Whether the agency relationship is exclusive (which does not allow the principal to enter into an agency relationship with another firm during the term) or nonexclusive (which allows the principal to enter into an agency relationship with multiple firms at the same time);
- 4. Whether the principal consents to limited dual agency;
- 5. The terms of compensation;
- 6. In an agreement with a buyer, whether the broker agrees to show a property when there is no agreement or offer by any party or firm to pay compensation to the broker's firm; and
- 7. Any other agreements between the parties.

A Broker's Duties to All Parties

A broker owes the following duties to all parties in a transaction:

- 1. To exercise reasonable skill and care;
- 2. To deal honestly and in good faith;
- 3. To timely present all written offers, written notices, and other written communications to and from either party;
- 4. To disclose all existing material facts known by the broker and not apparent or readily ascertainable to a party. A material fact includes information that substantially adversely affects the value of the property or a party's ability to perform its obligations in a transaction, or operates to materially impair or defeat the purpose of the transaction. However, a broker does not have any duty to investigate matters that the broker has not agreed to investigate;
- 5. To account in a timely manner for all money and property received from or on behalf of either party;
- 6. To provide this pamphlet to all parties to whom the broker renders real estate brokerage services and to any unrepresented party;
- 7. To disclose in writing who the broker represents; and
- 8. To disclose in writing any terms of compensation offered by a party or a real estate firm to a real estate firm representing another party.

A Broker's Duties to the Buyer or Seller

A broker owes the following duties to their principal (either the buyer or seller):

- 1. To be loyal to their principal by taking no action that is adverse or detrimental to their principal's interest in a transaction;
- 2. To timely disclose to their principal any conflicts of interest;
- 3. To advise their principal to seek expert advice on matters relating to the transaction that are beyond the broker's expertise;
- 4. To not disclose any confidential information from or about their principal; and
- 5. To make a good faith and continuous effort to find a property for the buyer or to find a buyer for the seller's property, until the principal has entered a contract for the purchase or sale of property or as agreed otherwise in writing.

Limited Dual Agent Duties

A limited dual agent may not advocate terms favorable to one principal to the detriment of the other principal. A broker, acting as a limited dual agent, owes the following duties to both the buyer and seller:

- 1. To take no action that is adverse or detrimental to either principal's interest in a transaction;
- 2. To timely disclose to both principals any conflicts of interest;
- 3. To advise both principals to seek expert advice on matters relating to the transaction that are beyond the limited dual agent's expertise;
- 4. To not disclose any confidential information from or about either principal; and
- 5. To make a good faith and continuous effort to find a property for the buyer and to find a buyer for the seller's property, until the principals have entered a contract for the purchase or sale of property or as agreed otherwise in writing.

Compensation

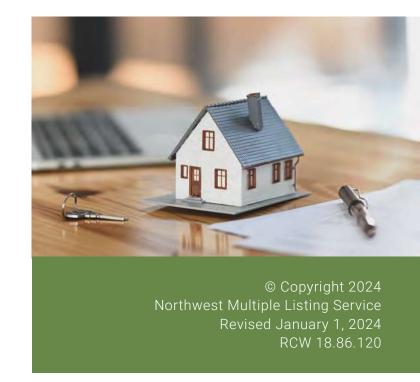

In any real estate transaction, a firm's compensation may be paid by the seller, the buyer, a third party, or by sharing the compensation between firms. To receive compensation from any party, a firm must have a written services agreement with the party the firm represents (or provide a "Compensation Disclosure" to the buyer in a transaction for commercial real estate).

A services agreement must contain the following regarding compensation:

- 1. The amount the principal agrees to compensate the firm for broker's services as an agent or limited dual agent;
- 2. The principal's consent, if any, and any terms of such consent, to compensation sharing between firms and parties; and
- 3. The principal's consent, if any, and any terms of such consent, to compensation of the firm by more than one party.

Short Sales

A "short sale" is a transaction where the seller's proceeds from the sale are insufficient to cover seller's obligations at closing (e.g., the seller's outstanding mortgage is greater than the sale price). If a sale is a short sale, the seller's real estate firm must disclose to the seller that the decision by any beneficiary or mortgagee, to release its interest in the property for less than the amount the seller owes to allow the sale to proceed, does not automatically relieve the seller of the obligation to pay any debt or costs remaining at closing, including real estate firms' compensation.

Alice Arnold

J.C. is amazing! He went above and beyond whatever I imagined a realtor would do to help me sell my house. I no longer lived in the home and it needed some work. He found contractors and gave them access and checked regularly on the property. Once on the market, he kept me posted daily as showings were scheduled and shared the feedback he received from other realtors. The house sold for much more than expected. A very positive experience with a great guy!

Andrea Matlick

J.C. was beyond great to work with! He was extremely patient with our very specific requests in what we were looking for in a home, and was always willing to answer my questions (and I had a lot!). He went above and beyond so many times for us during the buying of our new home and the selling of our existing home. We had a tough negotiation process on both ends, and he was very professional and he was always very timely with his communication with us. Not only did he guide us in the right direction with recommendations for our renovation before we sold our existing house to get it "market ready", but also he managed the whole staging process for us and even set up a landscaper to do a last minute clean up just days before our house went on the market. We were impressed countless time throughout the process! I can't say enough fantastic things about him, from his knowledge about the local markets to his attention to detail on the buying and selling end, you can't go wrong with him on your side.

Andrew Lyle

I am a certified public accountant and I had questions on the value of my home and where I should invest in updating for the greatest resale value. J.C. provided a great explanation and comparable market analysis that was extremely useful, especially since I like numbers! I would highly recommend J.C.!

Corey Bennett

I worked with J.C. Gagnaire for several years and saw firsthand the dedication, experience and care he provides to each and every one of his clients. He's an excellent realtor, and I would recommend him to anyone!

Daniel Bayla

J.C. is a smart and caring family man. He always puts his clients first! I highly recommend him. If you are lucky enough to work with him you will see what I mean!

Harley Dahlenburg

J.C. helped us completely through our home buying experience. I highly recommend using J.C. on any property purchase. He was very knowledgeable of the area and home buying process.

Jared Steiner

Throughout the process of J.C. being my realtor, he was friendly, professional, and always responded to my communications quickly. It's clear when working with him that he has lots of experience in the real estate industry, and is a great source of information and resources. With J.C.'s services, my house sold for above and beyond what I had hoped.

Jessica Taylor

We are new to the Seattle area and J.C. really helped us find the perfect home for us. He was very knowledgeable about the different areas! He also really helped us with the whole process from start to finish, and got us the best deal possible. I recommend J.C. to anyone looking to purchase or sell their home!

Joann Ryan

J.C. really helped me navigate the confusing Real Estate market. As a recent widow, he was very responsive to my questions and concerns. He was professional, knowledgeable and creative in his approach to the competitiveness of the market. I recommend him highly.

Laura Rama

J.C. was such a great resource and was so helpful with the entire house buying process. He was very patient with us while we toured multiple homes, and we never felt pressured. Would highly recommend!

John Harding

J.C. did a fantastic job. No worries . . .

Mamie Woodruff

Working with J.C. was a pleasure! It was great teaming up with him in getting our clients into their beautiful home! J.C. has great communicative skills, it was great being able to keep each other posted all the way through the transaction! Always great to team up and work together with a great agent and assist our clients in the purchase of their new dream home! Looking forward to working together more in the future!

Mathew Baker

J.C. was great—he worked with me throughout the entire home buying process. He is a dedicated real estate professional who works tirelessly to fulfill the client's purchase or sale. A calm presence through negotiations and the entire real estate transaction. J.C. was extremely knowledgeable of the neighborhoods I was searching in and helped secure the perfect home for me. He made the process stress-free. I would recommend J.C. if you are looking to buy or sell a home as his real state experience is valuable and look forward to hopefully being able to utilize his expertise again.

Roshan Shafi

I have worked with J.C. in the last couple years. I have noticed his attention to details and willingness to make things work for all parties. He is a hard worker and very focused. It has been a pleasure to be a business partner with J.C..

Rvan Marker

J.C. did an amazing job helping us buy and sell a home at the same time. He was able to get them to close together with a quick and simple process.

Troy Marcus

J.C. Gagnaire is an excellent Real Estate agent to work with, highly recommended!! He's friendly, easy to talk to, and very knowledgeable about his business. Call him today if you're looking to buy or sell your home!

Kevin Young

Thanks to J.C., I had a smooth experience purchasing investment property as well as buying and selling my personal homes. I chose J.C. because of his knowledge of the NW market, thoughtfulness and incredible work ethic. He researched the market remarkably well for my last 3 real estate transactions. He was not a push over in negotiations and the results he produced were above and beyond my expectations. I was very satisfied with his staging advice, help finding contractors, and beautiful photographs. J.C. made the process fun and was always there when I needed him. I highly recommend him to anyone looking to buy or sell a home in the Puget Sound area.

Tristan Gary

As a home stager, I have worked with many agents and J.C. was an absolute gem. I was very impressed with his level of commitment and extent to which he goes to promote a listing! He had great local knowledge, he was excellent in his interactions with the homeowners, he always responded when I sent texts or calls, and he found excellent buyers for the home. I was so impressed with him I have already recommended him to others!!

Nate Lauer

J.C.'s knowledge of Seattle and surrounding area was helpful, J.C. was very dependable and always accessible if we had any questions about the home-buying process. J.C. was very straightforward, did not pressure us to buy, and was very keyed in on making sure we picked the right home. J.C. was very accommodating throughout the entire process, even when we had lots of questions. His main interest was making sure we were happy with the house. We would highly recommend using J.C. as your realtor. He will find your dream house and make the entire process delightful and easy to understand.

Jeff Keeney

J.C. handled the listing perfectly. Easy to work with.

Preeti Singh

J.C. is the best realtor we could have got. He was always patient and did his indent research before showing us the property. I have two small kids and he was always able to adjust his schedule to meet our requirements. I really appreciate the personal touch he added in the whole process. Even after we closed in the house he recommended lot of good people to get work done in the house and overall we were very, very pleased by his service and would definitely recommend him to our friends.
